Shane's Shenanigans

with harvest. Just as the fields are growing ripe for harvest so also the souls of men, women, and children are being prepared for the final harvest. It's said that some timber producers have to wait up to 180 years to produce a harvest. That means the planter will never know the great grandchild who reaps the harvest, and the harvester will never know the forefather who planted the seed. The future depends on the foresight and patience of each generation.

Sunday, Sept. 5 we are beginning a new series entitled Preparing for the Harvest. Fall is a time we associate Christianity is much the same way. We don't know when the Lord will return, but we can live in preparation for that day. When we focus on the certainty of Christ's return, and the hope that brings, we can wait for the Lord and endure any adversity this life throws at us. Join me in the field beginning this Sunday.

A Point to Ponder Once there was a father with a son who was lazy. He tried to convince his son that he should join him in the work on his farm. The son was not convinced. The father was actually worried, how his son would earn his living after his death. Therefore, before his death, the father called his son and told: "My son, I have hidden for you a great treasure in the fields." Before the son could ask him where exactly it was hidden, the father died. After the death of the father, the son began to search for the treasure. He dug from one end of the field to the other. But he could not find any treasure. He was disappointed, angry and desperate. As he sat there disappointed, he came to this idea. "I dug the field anyway. Although I have not found the treasure, why can't I at least cultivate the land?" He cultivated the land and got a great harvest. Then it occurred to him, that this harvest was the treasure that his father had left for him in the fields.

vs. 2, "He told them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.'"

Women's Ministries

WOMEN'S MINISTRY BOARD NEWS

Ladies, after careful consideration and prayer, your Women's Ministry Board will be taking a Sabbatical for an undetermined time. Women's ministry is on-going and will not end, but we need YOUR help – each of you is an important part of the ministry to women in our church. Do you have a passion or burning in your heart to have a special activity or ministry for women? If you will plan it, we from the Board will help you make it happen! We are excited to see what the Lord will do in our midst as each lady lets God show her what part she can play in our ladies' ministry.
